AG IN THE CLASSROOM CONFERENCE SCHOLARSHIP 2023

The Ventura County Chapter of California Women for Agriculture offers multiple scholarships to local teachers to attend the 2023 California Agriculture in the Classroom Conference, to be held September 22-24 at the Holiday Inn Downtown Sacramento - Arena.

The VC-CWA scholarship provides winners with up to $1000 each to cover 2 nights hotel, travel, and conference registration fees. Registration fees will be sent directly to the California Foundation for Ag in the Classroom. Other expenses will be reimbursed when you submit receipts after attending the conference.

As an attendee, you are invited to Friday afternoon field trips and evening BBQ, Saturday meals, workshops and activities, and Sunday morning breakfast, speakers and sessions - plus amazing educational resources. This is a fantastic learning experience to take back to the classroom with you! You will receive many complimentary teaching aids and lessons, along with tours, tastings and hands on activities, all related to educating your students on the value of agriculture.
